This beautiful family became my family from the time Vivica was five years old. I have been sharing so many of their milestones. This is by far the most difficult ever. But, one thing is for certain, Victor and Arnell's love continues to permeate throughout my life and so many other lives. It is truly a legacy and an honor. Thanks to all of the family.

Hey punchie, girls and Freeman family.my heart is heavy with you.Free was my shipmate, mason Brother and became my Chief. Free and i were station at FTCC, we were Instructors together and he was a krazy, fun, caring friend, you could hear him each day coming down the hallway, talking mess to whomever he passby, roll tide or that great state of Alabama, so many laughs daily in that office. We we were so loud , had alot of fun times.lol. I remember when you came to the school house as my student and he told me to look out for you. It was a pleasure to know you and your family. He will truly be missed. R.I.P. Free. Prayers & love to you Punchie and the family.

“ I was saddened to hear about Victor. He had such an impact on the lives of my Niece Tiffany and his grandchildren. They loved talking to him and especially spending time with him. Just know that I am here for you, and please do not hesitate to reach out, especially during this difficult time.

Just remember, that after the tears have dried and all the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us!

Rest On!

- “ 1: If I tell you that a bumblebee can tow a truck, hook it up!
- 2: Hartman! Yes Chief? Get in my office! Moving Chief! Not fast enough!
- 3: dont always be the life of the party, sometimes sit back and enjoy the party.
- 4: Hartman, just remember this, when you make it to the top, send the elevator back down, cause it's hungry at the bottom.
- 5: whatever you do, wherever you go, read. I don't care if it's a newspaper, a military publication, or a magazine. No matter what there is to read or learn about other people. I knew a guy, have you ever met a guy that just seemed goofy before. I was on liberty at a bar one time with this guy who no one cared much for. They thought he was strange. So I asked him, why are you always reading? He said to me that it is how he can learn a little bit of something concerning any man's interest so that he can better find common ground with everyone he talks to.
- 6: I gave a blind man a drive on a number of occasions to an undisclosed location. We was just kicking back, tying one on. Breaking bread. Finally I worked up the nerve to ask him how it is that he knew such vivid descriptions of the directions on how to get there. He explained to me that he asked people, and they got to know him really well, and they would take the time to answer all of his questions. Vic explained to me that this blind man was blind, but that he could see the neighborhood in his own head better than Vic could see it, in more detail than he chose to see it with his very own, perfectly usable set of eyes.
- 7: Vic, your funeral starts soon and I feel torn up that I cannot be there with your family in their time of grief. You are a beautiful man, and I know you are there looking down at us, guiding our extended family from afar. I love you brother. I'll definitely have a lot to tell you about the next time we have one of our deep conversations. Sorry for keeping you on the phone until your family tells you to get to bed. I love you like a father.

“BIG CUZ WITH TEARS IN MY EYES , JUST WOW , MAN OUR GRANDDAD'S WERE BROTHERS, OUR DADS LOVED EACH OTHER AS BROTHERS AND SO DID ME AND YOU. YOU WERE ALWAYS MY BIG BROTHER, SO MUCH COULD BE SAID, WE KNEW WHAT WE WERE TO EACH OTHER, IM TRULY THANKFUL FOR THE TIME WE SPENT TOGETHER THE STORIES, THE DISAPPOINTMENTS, THE ACHIEVEMENTS WE SHARED, YOUR FAMILY WAS MY FAMILY AND MINE WAS YOURS. TO LOSE MY DAD AND YOU IN 3 MONTH'S TIME. ITS A LOT TO TAKE IT. BUT AGAIN I WILL PRESS FORWARD. PRAYERS AND BLESSINGS TO YOUR WIFE, DAUGHTERS AND GRANDKIDS, YOUR MOM, AUNTS AND UNCLES, AND AS YOU SAID YOUR BABY ' YOUR GRANDMOTHER ' . I WAS BLESSED TO BE A SMALL PART OF THE BIG PICTURE. REST ON BIG CUZZ REST ON. " NOTHING BUT LOVE FOR YA " IN YOUR VOICE. KFREE 🙏🙏🥹🥹

“Punchy,

I cannot imagine what you and your family are going through. But let me say that Hazel, Destiny, AJ and I share your pain as well as your joy and laughter. Some of us called Victor “Free”, some called him “Duty”, and some chose to call him “Duty Free”. Whatever the case may be, we can all call him “Free” now because his work here is truly done!

Man, how the years have gone by so fast. I have known Victor for over 30 years, and I can honestly say that he never wavered when it came to his word! One of his favorite saying was “If I tell you a duck can pull a truck then you’d better believe it”. This is just one of the many phrases that he used to describe some of life’s events and to magnify his commitment to you.

You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers and we will get through this together.

*Very Respectfully,
The Boone Family
Summerville, SC*

My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. I take comfort in know that Victor had nothing but love for me. Arnell, you the girls and the grandsons having all my love and support. My only regret is that I'm not going to be there for my boy. I'm going to end this just the way Free ended every conversation with me, I got nothing but love for you. Take your rest Victor, I love you 🤍🙏🤍

*With Loving memories,
Your sister Doris*
