“ Vikki was my sister friend for many years. She always brought a smile and a sweetness to any room she stepped into. Her voice was as sweet and as smooth as she was. It was like a classical sound with a undeniable soul. I pray that her soul is resting peacefully in her Father's arms. I pray for those of us who remain here and loved her so.

“ Our sincere condolences to the family. I had the distinct privilege of serving with Vikki while commissioning USS Porter, DDG-78 in 1999. Vikki was a dedicated professional with boundless drive and energy. I was thrilled to discover soon afterward she had accepted a commission as a naval officer, an awesome accomplishment. She'll be missed but certainly not forgotten. May God be with you and see your family thorough this difficult time. Rest in Peace Vikki.

“ My condolences to the family of a beloved woman of God whom I had the pleasure of knowing. It's because of her that I was able to be in good shape not only physically, but spiritually as well. I will truly miss her smile and upbeat spirit, and I pray that Jesus took her to that mansion prepared just for her. Rest in peace, shipmate.
