She leaves to cherish her memory, two brothers, Charlie (Clara) and Clarence (Theresa) and a host of nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by two sisters India Flora, Mary Magdalene and one brother Melvin.

She was a member of St. Luke Episcopal Church for more than 50 years. She sang in the choir and was a member of the Agricultural Symphony. She also sang with other choral groups in the city.

She was a member of the Tuesday Group of the Church which consisted of seniors who held Bible Study, Arts and Crafts, various games, fed the homeless and had movies for them on Fridays.

She was a member of the Lay Eucharist Ministry of the Church, visiting the sick and sharing the sacrament with members of the congregation who were unable to be present at the celebration because of illness or infirmity.

Viola was truly a "servant who was soberly, sincerely submitted to the service of God", a phrase coined by her good friend~ the Reverend Dr. Theodore R. Little Jr., where she could always be found in service whenever she came home to visit.
