Dear Michael,
November 9, 2018

Dear Michael,

This is the name that your family members and close friends called you. Our mother always taught you and I to hold hands as toddlers and holding on to your hand I never forgot to do. As I weep losing you from this place called earth-I weep a non-selfish weep because I know that our "God, had another plan for you". You never stopped weeping as we lost our dear mother in 2011. Now, you are joining our parents in a place where there is no pain and suffering.

As I watched you suffered for your last 32 days I knew that this day was soon to come. We (Mary, Gwen and myself) kept a 24-hour watch over as you laid in and out of consciousness- to God Be The Glory; was a difficult undertaking. No matter how hard we fought to keep your frail body alive- "God, had another plan for you".

Monday October 29, 2018; I spoke to you for the last time as you continued what would be your final journey to join our Heavenly Father and beloved our parents I accepted that this was meant to be. Michael, the final time that I got to hold your hand and feel your last pulse was at 4:03 p.m.- I truly accepted that- "God had another plan for you".

I am blessed for having the opportunity to call you my brother and my friend for 61 years and I will miss your 7 or 11'o clock nightly calls to ensure that I had safety arrived home- "God had another plan for you".

So now as written in Psalm 30:5, "Weeping may tarry for the night, but "Joy Comes with the Morning". Yes! Yes! -"God had another plan for you".

*With a Loving Heart, Your sister,
Judy-Willie J. Anderson*

“ Andy was a great teacher and coworker. His assistance made my transition into the shipyard smooth and successful. He was a great coworker to travel with. Andy's presence always illuminated the atmosphere of the shop and jobsite. Andy was missed when he retired, he will be missed now that he is with the Creator.
