“ I got to know Walter back 2006 and from the start I knew he was a good man. I really enjoyed when he had his hat on and the pride he took in how he dressed. Walter understood how to treat everyone with respect and was always willing to give a helping hand to someone in need. I will always think of the times I had to talk to him about cars, military, teaching and so many other things. I feel so good to have had Walter as a friend in my life. To his son, you had a wonderful father!
