

Wilbert A. Liggins

September 4, 1943 - January 15, 2021

Wilbert Alfeirs Liggins (77) made the journey from this temporary dwelling place to his eternal home with his heavenly Father on Friday, January 15, 2021.

He was born on September 4, 1943 to the late Willie and Novella Liggins. Wilbert has always been a hardworker. He entered the workforce at Gwaltney in Smithfield, Va, then moved to Stone and Webster (VEPCO) in Surry, Va. Wilbert worked a brief period of time at Newport News Shipyard, but returned to the newly named Smithfield Foods to work 35 years until his retirement at 62 years of age. Wilbert is a soft spoken and gentle person. He enjoys dancing, singing, antique cars and a stylish attire. More importantly, he gave his life to Christ and experienced a restored relationship with his heavenly Father. Wilbert was a member and a Trustee at Mt. Moriah AME Church in Elberon, Va.

He is survived by his wife, Beatrice Liggins and 3 children from his 56 years of marriage with her – Anthony Liggins (Paula) of Miami, Fla, Deneen Stone (Raymond) of Burr Hill, Va. and Donna Christie (Felix) of Jacksonville, Fla. Wilbert has 2 children outside of this union – Eric Giles Sr. (deceased) and Ricky Giles; two grandchildren (Jaquon Goodman and Eric Giles, Jr) and a great granddaughter (Eryn Giles); 13 sisters and brothers - Barbara Liggins, Clementine Baker, Lloyd Liggins (Chonda), Laura Liggins, Brenda Ravizee (John), Catherine Christian, Joyce Chapman (Ronell), Roscoe Liggins (Sharay), James Liggins (Lynn), Tony Liggins (Elizabeth), Raymond Liggins (Julia), John Liggins and Jerry Liggins. Preceded in death by Paul Liggins (brother). He has a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
