

Wilhemeina Harris

October 24, 1938 - December 16, 2018

On Sunday, December 16, 2018, God called our beloved Wilhelmeina Harris home. Wilhelmeina was born on October 24, 1938. She was educated in the Portsmouth Public School System and worked at Manning Convalescent Home for many years. Wilhelmeina attended Philadelphia Church of Christ Disciples #5, where she was affectionately known as "Mother Harris". She was a loving and selfless woman that cared about the needs of others. Wilhelmeina was preceded in death by her parents, David Sr. and Eleanor Harris, and a brother, David Harris Jr. She is survived by a daughter, Maureen Harris; four brothers, James L. Harris, Vincent L. Harris, Leslie K. Harris, and Leonard V. Harris; three sisters, Nancy J. Harris, Sanada L. Stancil, and Erma L. Harris; two grandsons; Antione Harris and Dominique Harris; eight great grandchildren; one great grandson; a special son-in-law Leonard Scott; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ I am going to really miss you auntie! thanks for helping my grandmother raise me! i know i have made you proud because you have told me! i am sorry you didnt get the chance to meet your great great niece levy! im sure you would have spoiled her just like you did me and my sister! I really love you and now you dont have to suffer any more! Sorry i cant make it to your homegoing becasue of being in the navy times like this gets hard when i cant be with the family when we are hurting. just know i will be thinking about you and i love you baby!

From your niece Lashaunda Beale
