“ I would like to express my condolences for the loss of your husband. When you lose a loved one to death, you might be confronted with a number of overwhelming emotions. However, allow yourself time to grieve. Remember the happy times you shared with her. Remembering those times might be painful at first, but in time, those memories may help you to heal rather than cause you to hurt. Most importantly rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is real and vital communication. Pour out your heart to God. He will listen and give you the strength needed to help you through this sad time.

“ I am so very sorry for the family's loss. Mr. Bill worked for me at NPD and he always came in with a smile. He was always pleasant but as his supervisor he was the one who helped me more than I helped him. He will be missed!

“ Sorry to hear about the passing of Bill. I served with him during my tenure on the Norfolk Police Dept. and found him to be devoted to his job and family. He was also a very caring and friendly person to all he came in contact with. He will be sorely missed. May he rest in God's Peace..
