

William Thomas Morings

April 9, 1940 - July 15, 2018

Those we love must someday pass beyond our present sight...

Must leave us and the world we know, without their radiant light. But we know that like a candle, their lovely light will shine. To brighten up another place, more perfect, more divine, and in the realm of evening. Where they shine so warm and bright our loved one lives forevermore in God's eternal light.

William T. Morings, 79 of Portsmouth, Virginia died Sunday, July 15, 2018, with his family by his side. He was born to the late Rose and William Morings, April 9, 1940 in Gates, North Carolina. He married Emma Jean Ralph.

He was a storm water worker for the City of Portsmouth, he started February 28, 1981 and later retired May 1, 2002. He loved people, fishing, hunting, playing cards, gardening, listening to blues and oldie but goodie music, reading magazines, and living his best life.

He is predeceased by his siblings: Russell Riddick, Jessie Dillard, Frank Morings, and Vernon Morings.

“ My Uncle William was exceptional the fondest memory that I have of him and was told of him" is when I was a girl I think I was around four years old when my mother and father was in a bad car accident my father died and my mother "uncle William oldest sister was hospitalized for months and which no one came to take care of us me and my two brothers besides my uncle William uncle Tom that's what we called him Then and I also remember, that uncle Tom loved to fish and so he would take my brother George out fishing he wanted to go with him so bad, he continued too worry uncle Tom every weekend and so Uncle Tom finally took him out and each time George would come back Mad because Uncle Tom would keep him out all day "from 7 o'clock in the morning to at least 730 at night and so George "didn't want to go no more, so my mom would still make him go "for a little while" my uncle William was a Good man he just didn't take no mess and didn't play no games. There was nothing phony about My Uncle William "He always said "what he meant " and Meant What he Said" And That's What I LOVED THE MOST ABOUT HIM " He AIWays Gave It STRAIGHT NO CHASER UNCLE WILLIAM YOU WILL BE GREATLY MISSED " LOVE YOU ALWAYS "LIL BRIDGETTE"
