*To,
The Cassell family, truly I thank you for unselfishly sharing your wonderful father Mr. Cassell A.K.A Mr. Pork with us all at Edenwald Houses. He is surely missed. Edenwald isn't the same without him. We lost a father, a Grandfather, a friend, a teacher. A joy spreader and a wisdom sharer. My heart greaves more for Mr. Porkchop than for my own biological father. May the Lord strengthen the Cassell family and his extended family in Jesus name I truly pray Amen.*

Mr, Porkchop loved us all, he had a non judgmental heart, he loved everyone. Even the one's who wasn't so lovable. Never have I ever known such a kinder well respected person. I know Mr. Porkchop will rest in the presence of the Lord. Before he transcended from this earth the glory of the Lord came upon him to strengthen him for his journey home. A strength was in his voice when I last spoke with him that let me know the Lord had prepared him for Himself.

My, Son Kenneth Jr loved Mr Porkchop a great deal and would oftentimes sit on the bench on the weekends and talk until 5:00am in the morning and I would ask him were had he been and He would laugh and say mommy I was outside talking to Mr Porkchop. And he would say mommy I learned so much from talking to him. My son hardly ever cries but he cried when the Lord called Mr Porkchop home to rest.

Condolences from the family of Robert G Thompson. Mr. Cassell was a former co-worker of my Dad. He would call from time to time to check up on his old buddy from the NYC Housing Authority. Unfortunately my Dad preceded Mr Cassell in moving on to glory. Hopefully they have reconnected on the other side. Blessing and comfort to you Family knowing that your loved one is no longer suffering! 🙏 Dr Imani Ma'at

“ Certainly, the life of "Bill" was a tremendous blessing to family, loved ones and friends. The joyful and pleasant days will be cherished by those who knew him as a young man and those who had the pleasure to meet him later in his life. Time and distance prevented many of his friends from seeing him on a frequent basis, but the distance and time did not interfere with the many pleasant memories that our family will always hold dear in our hearts.

It is our prayer that your family will gain peace, joy and comfort today and the days to come.

Lovingly,

The Peterson family from Douglas Park and Cavalier Manor.
