

William Richard Warren

May 7, 1957 - April 11, 2020

William "Billy" Warren was born in Shirley, Ma. to parents Roderick Warren and Clarissa Amaya Larralde. He grew up in Maple Shade, New Jersey whom childhood friends said he was always smiling. He attended Maple Shade High School where classmates said he was somewhat quiet, smart and never needed to study.

He later chose a career in computer-aided design for construction and architecture. He was a hard worker and known for his kind heart and sense of humor.

A spiritual man, he had a love for his family and animals, especially wolves. His hobbies included playing with his half wolf/half husky dog Xena, playing his bass guitar, and listening to classic rock and jazz.

The eldest of five, he is survived by his brothers Joe, George, Gary and Kurt Warren and to his wife of 30+ yrs. Betty Lee Warren, his step-daughters Sarena Casella and Renee Solita, grand-daughters to Sarena, Amanda Barkley and Amity Hookumchand, and great-grandchildren to Amity, Delilah and J'Shaun Hookumchand. Services are to be announced.
