

William P. Smith, Jr.

May 13, 1974 - May 1, 2018

William Percel Smith, Jr. affectionately known as Billy, of the 3400 block of Woodstock Street in Portsmouth, Virginia, passed away on May 1, 2018. Billy was born on May 13, 1974, to the proud parents of William P. Smith, Sr. and Priscilla Goudeau in Casteau, Belgium. A product of the Portsmouth school system, Billy attended Cradock High School and went on to obtain his GED soon after. Billy loved to write, cook and worked as a culinary chef for many years before changing fields. His love for writing was expressed in the form of poetry and rap songs. He was skillful with his hands and loved to make people smile as he detailed cars to perfection. Billy was known for his quick wit and sense of humor and if ever in his presence, you were overtaken by his infectious smile. On June 12, 2017,

Billy was joined in marriage to the love of his life, Democha Smith. He was a diehard fan of the Philadelphia Eagles and loved to brag about his team. Billy will be sorely missed, but in our hearts forever. He is predeceased by maternal grandparents, Freddie & Cora Goudeau and paternal grandparents, Arnold & Ella Smith. He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Democha Smith; four sons, Caleb Adams, NaQuan Palmer, William Smith III, and Elyjah Smith; parents, Priscilla Smith and William Smith, Sr., one sister, Cora Smith, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends.
