

Willie Bynum

January 17, 1934 - March 17, 2020

Willie "Hack/Dubba T" Thomas Bynum, 86 passed away peacefully March 17, 2020. He was born January 17, 1934 in South Hampton County, VA to the late Robert Norfleet Bynum and Clara A. Whitfield Bynum.

He began his career and retired from Bill Rim Construction Company as a skilled brick mason. His work can be seen across the Peninsula Area, where he constructed such popular businesses and franchises such as 7-Eleven's and Bakers Crust Artisan Kitchen. Also, crafted substantially large mass amounts of city construction contracts. His stewardship and legacy as a brick mason will always show omnipotent "good hands and a skill for building."

On July 17, 1954, Willie Bynum married Eula Mae Bynum. He leaves behind four children, LaVerne Bynum, Willie Thomas Bynum, Jr., Jeffrey Todd Bynum, Yvette Cameron, (preceded) Anthony Eugene Bynum. Two sisters, Ruth Holloman-Bynum and Lester Dean Bynum. Four grandchildren, DaRon Earl Bynum, Melvina Moore, KaTrisha Latrice Bynum and Anthony Eugene Bynum, Jr. Two great-grandchildren, Juan Dallas Moore (Big Ben), Jaylen Rashad Moore (Little Ben). And a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
