

Willie Walter Vann Sr.

June 27, 1927 - July 26, 2019

Trustee Chair Willie W. Vann Sr. went home to be with his Heavenly Father on Friday, July 26, 2019. During his illness, he would often quote Psalms 23. He was born on June 27, 1927 in Winton, NC to the late Alice B. Vann and Major D. Vann. He served his country during World War II and was a veteran. He also retired from the Norfolk Naval Shipyard shop 38 as a Marine Machinery Mechanic. Trustee Chair Vann was a faithful servant and member of Mount Nebo RZUA for over 60 years. He was the oldest member of our church. He served on the Usher Board, the Senior Choir, the Thrifty Relief Club and the Number Two Choir. He formed the male chorus and loved singing, his favorite song was "I Come to the Garden Alone". Lastly, as Chair of the Trustee Board.

He leaves to cherish his memory three sons, Van I. Vann (Rafika), Willie W. Vann Jr. and Major D. Vann; two daughters, Valerie I. Stone and Michelle R. Pringle; two stepsons, Milton E. Sykes (Gwen), and Sylvester Sykes (Philistine); three stepdaughters, Mattie M. Burrell, Redia D. Testa (Ralph), and Betty J. Spencer (Bennie). Twenty grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren. He also leaves a host of beloved nephews, nieces, great nephews and great nieces.
