“ I remember Yves when I worked with him at Donatello's an Italian restaurant. I couldn't understand a word he said but luckily I took French so I could catch maybe 2 words. I married him and I loved him like a dear friend. I married Yves because he loved this country and wanted the American dream. I miss you Yves and always will

“ My name is Tim. I met Yves and Tommie a little over 5 years ago. Yves asked what I charged for law service. After telling him, Yves said to me, “if I don't like you, you will not be here long. Well five years later I was still there. Every time, I was over, he would show me the new boat model he was working on or bought. I always allotted time when I was going to be at his house. He taught me a lot and he was a father figure to me. I will never forget my friend. I am so sorry I was not there when you and Tommie needed me the most. I love and miss you, so very much. May you Rest In Peace my friend.
