“ To The Harrell Family I would like to take this time to express my deepest sympathy to all of you especially Sarah, Derek, Shannon and Denise. I just recently learned of Yvonne's passing and I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to all of you. You are in my prayers. Even though it's been along time since I've seen Yvonne I will always remember her warm smile and her quite spirit. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah swallows up death forever but until then, remember that each day brings us closer to seeing Yvonne again. Stay strong. Much Love Sheila & Daria "The Greens.##imported-begin##Sheila Greer Indianapolis, Indiana##imported-end##

“ Dear Family,
I'm so sadden by the loss of a special person whom we all will miss. My daughter April Majette will be hurt because she really loved Yvonne since she use to babysit my daughter. Yvonne was a kind and loving person but most of all a faithful person to he family, friends and above all Jehovah who now she's in his memory and soon come out with a new body free from pain. We will miss her, love you all and will keep you in my prayer!!!###imported-begin##Debora (Majette) Larson live in (Florida)###imported-end##

“ Dear Harrell Family;
We've known each other for many years. Grown up together, attended each other weddings, been through ups and downs together. Now we suffer this loss of Yvonne together. As you know, in just a short time, we will welcome our loved ones back into our lives. John 5:28,29; Revelation 20:13.
Until that joyous and blessed day, please know that you have our condolences, love and support.

Much love;

“ Momma, Peaches & Derek- I will forever miss my dear friend and confidante "Uta Mae Johnson", to most known as Yvonne. We laughed and cried together and always knew that if one needed the other, she would be there. I thought of her as my sister, and as such, loved her dearly. Please call on me if you need me and I will always be there.##imported-begin##Betsy Tatum##imported-end##
