“ My deepest condolences go out to the Russell family. Mr. Russell was a genuine man, always treated me kindly and always spoke words of encouragement. The last thing he told me was that he was proud of me. Mr. Russell will truly be missed. Mrs. Shirley I wish I was there to wrap my arms around you. I love you dearly.

“ Dear Shirley and family, words can't describe or express how hurt I am for the loss of our beloved Zollie. I know that our Lord and Savior is holding him in his arms close to his heart because another one of his children have come home. I will miss the calls I would make while he was traveling across the USA and when he answered I would say J U S T C H E C K I N G .When he answered I knew he was okay. Give the kids a hug and hold them close. Call us if you need us. Love to you all,cousins, Nyoka, Barbara,Doris and Ella Carroll...
